

The Jean Monnet European Centre of Excellence announces the release of a special issue on migration and mobility of The Romanian Journal of European Studies, edited since 2002 at the West University of Timișoara.

The Romanian Journal of European Studies

No.7-8/2009

ISSN 1 5 8 3 - 1 9 9 X

 Editura Universității de Vest

South-Eastern Europe and the European Migration System. East-West Mobility in Flux

Guest Editor

Dr. Paolo Ruspini, University of Lugano, Switzerland

The journal is available in both printed and electronic form

For the on-line version of the journal, please visit www.migration.ro. The papers are largely distributed on open access web directories / libraries such MPRA, RePEc, SSRN or Archive of European Integration (AEI), for a wider dissemination of the scientific information. The authors are encouraged to freely post the papers on personal / professional / institutional webpage(s). Printed copies are sent to major university libraries and research centres in the region and from Europe, Japan and USA. For more information about printed copies, please contact the publishing house of the West University of Timișoara (Mr. Adrian Bodnar, director - Editura Universității de Vest, Universitatea de Vest din Timișoara; 4, Bd. Vasile Pârvan, 300223 Timișoara, Timiș, Romania, phone: +40-256-592.395, phone/fax +40-256-592.253).

Researchers interested in being announced by e-mail upon the release of the new journal issue and having it delivered directly to their inbox may contact Mr. Ovidiu Simina at romanian.journal@migration.ro.

Universitatea de Vest din Timișoara
Centrul European de Excelență « Jean Monnet »
The Romanian Journal of European Studies - Secretariatul Colegiului Editorial
B-dul Vasile Pârvan nr.4, camera 506; Timișoara 300223, România

The Romanian Journal of European Studies no.7-8/2009

Contents

1. Editorial

Paolo Ruspini

2. The Evolution of the European Migration System in light of the North-American Experience

Paolo Ruspini

Part I - Patterns of South-Eastern European Migration in Historical and Comparative Perspective

3. The New Migratory Routes of Europe? Polish and Romanian Emigrations in a Comparative Historical Perspective

Aurore Flipo

4. Italy – Albania. The Migrant as a Bridge Between Two Homelands: The Role of Remittances

Eralba Çela, Eros Moretti, Eniel Ninka

5. A Critical Discussion of the Motivations to Remit in Albania and Moldova

Jessica Hagen-Zanker, Melissa Siegel

Part II – Migration, Asylum and European Integration: Experiences of Central and South-Eastern European Countries

6. Migration Policy and Immigrants in the Czech Labour Market

Eva Janska

7. Hungary at Crossroads

Áron Kincses, Máry Redei

8. Building “Fortress Europe”: Europeanization of Asylum Policy in Turkey

Nurcan Özgür Baklacioğlu

Part III – New Approaches to the Enlarging European Migration Space

9. The EU Visa Liberalisation Process for Western Balkan Countries as a Reflection of the Politics of Modernity

Sanja Ivic

10. The Quest for Talent: EU Policies towards the “Brain-drain” Phenomenon

Eugeniu Burdelnii

11. Right to Refuse. Choices of Sovereign States in Transforming Migration Scenarios

Oudekki Loone